❖ The following questions are linked to the Catholic Graduate Expectations in relation to the D-Day 75 Program. Please reflect and respond to each question.

➤ A Discerning Believer who respects the faith traditions, world religions and the life-journeys of all people of good will. Explain how you think the D-Day 75 Program will broaden your understanding of other cultures.

---

---

---

---

➤ An Effective Communicator who listens actively and critically to understand and learn in light of gospel values. Spending 11 days and nights travelling in foreign lands with a large group of people can be challenging. Effective communication can make this experience more enjoyable, safe and informative. Describe your greatest strength in communicating.

---

---

---

---

---

- A Reflective, Creative and Holistic Thinker who solves problems and makes responsible decisions with an informed moral conscience for the common good. Travel requires adaptability and flexibility. What will be your greatest challenge when it comes to travelling in a large group?

---

---

---

---

---

- A Self-Directed, Responsible, Life-Long Learner who develops and demonstrates their God-given potential. Explain what you hope to gain as being part of the D-Day 75 Program.

---

---

---

---

---

- A Collaborative Contributor who finds meaning, dignity and vocation in work which respects the rights of all and contributes to the common good. The mutual support and cooperation between participants is necessary to deal with challenges that arise when travelling. What strengths will you bring to the group? Please explain.

---

---

---

---

---

- A Caring Family Member who attends to family, school, parish, and the wider community. As a member of the D-Day 75 Program, you will be representing your family, school and country at the D-Day 75th Anniversary ceremony. Why do you want to be part of this opportunity?

---

---

---

---

---

- A Responsible Citizen who gives witness to Catholic social teaching by promoting peace, justice and the sacredness of human life. For most students, this will be the first time travelling without family members, and for some, it may be their first time out of the country. Are you ready to commit to the level of responsibility and independence required for the D-Day 75 Program? Please explain.
